

The 21st ACM Symposium on Access Control Models and Technologies (SACMAT)

June 5–8, 2016, Shanghai, China

Call For Sponsorship

The ACM Symposium on Access Control Models and Technologies (SACMAT) is the premier forum for the presentation of research results and experience reports on leading edge issues of access control, including models, systems, applications, and theory. The aims of the symposium are to share novel access control solutions that fulfill the needs of heterogeneous applications and environments, and to identify new directions for future research and development. SACMAT provides researchers and practitioners with a unique opportunity to share their perspectives with others interested in the various aspects of access control. Attendees will hear about recent research results and be able to network with luminaries, researchers, and practitioners in the field. SACMAT 2016, to be held in Shanghai, China, will attract the best graduate students, researchers, and practitioners from academic and industrial institutions in the China and around the world, and offer unparalleled opportunities for recruiting top talent.

Sponsorship opportunities

SACMAT offers a variety of sponsorship opportunities suitable for both large as well as small organizations. Sponsors of SACMAT gain visibility for their organizations by demonstrating their support of critical related research and development, and contribute to the success of conference. Three levels of sponsorship are available:

- Gold: 5,000 USD (or 30,000 RMB)
- Silver: 3,000 USD (or 20,000 RMB)
- Bronze: 2,000 USD (or 10,000 RMB)

Benefits for each of the levels are provided in the following section.

Sponsors will also have the opportunity to sponsor individual awards and events with reduced benefits.

- Awards – SACMAT is offering opportunities to sponsor student travel awards and best paper awards. The sponsor's name will be announced and prominently displayed during the awards ceremony.

- Events – SACMAT is offering opportunities to sponsor a conference luncheon, a conference reception, and the conference banquet. During these events, the sponsor's name will be prominently displayed and the sponsor will be offered 10 minutes to make a presentation for the purpose of recruiting and/or advertising. SACMAT is also offering opportunities to sponsor student luncheons -- these will be offered to student attendees at the time of registration. The student luncheons will give sponsors direct access to students that have already shown an interest in their organization, thus providing an excellent opportunity for recruiting. The sponsor is responsible for catering the student luncheon at a local venue.
